Largest Crowd In History of Post Baseball Sees Conflict

25th Infantry Wins Close Game From Baby Regiment Team Before 2400 Spectators in Oahu-Service League Contest—Morgan Wins Out in Pitchers' Battle With Mashaw—Goliath and Holcomb Star With Bat in Great Game—Only One Walk

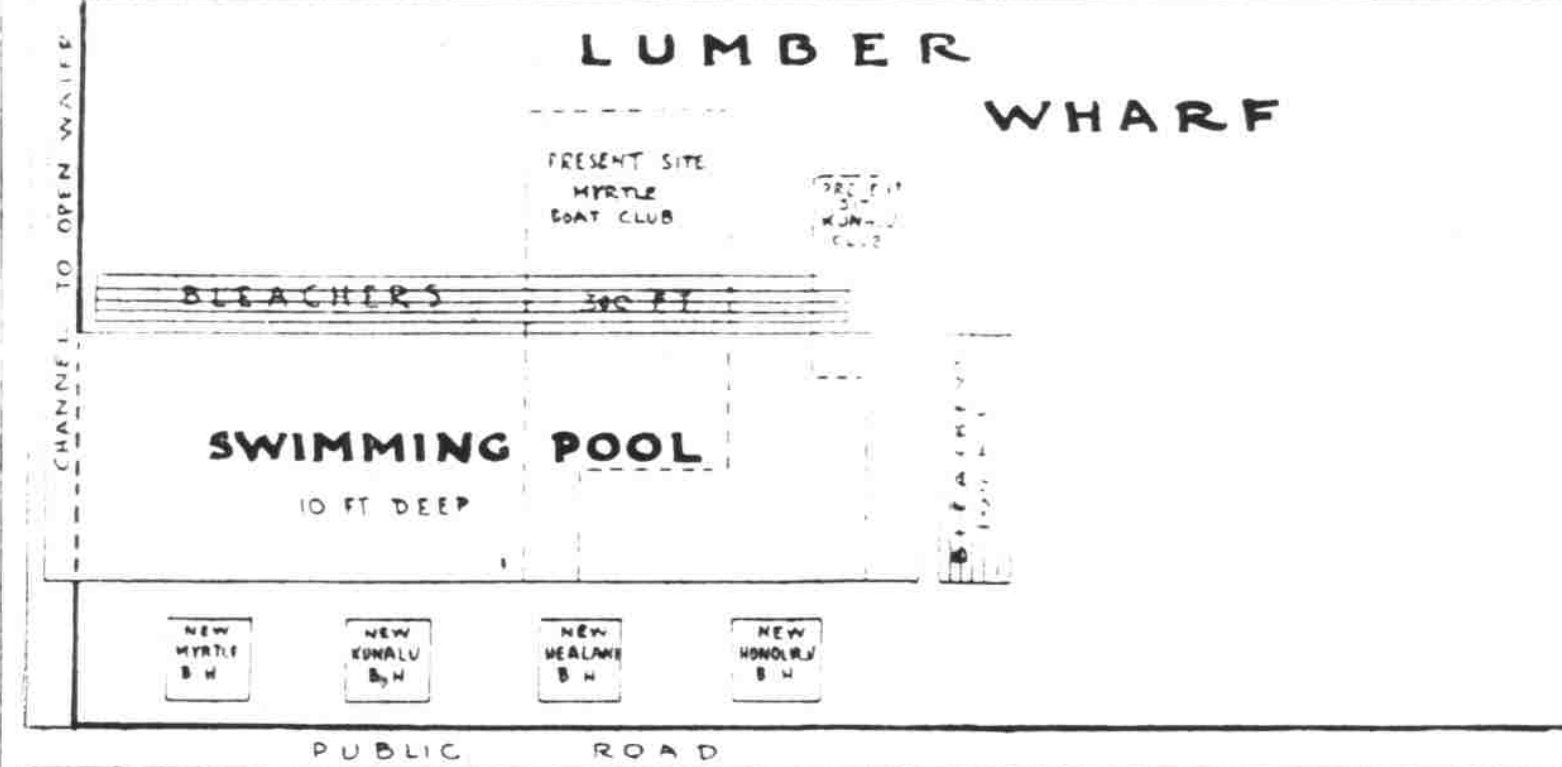

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOOLFIELD PARK, June 3.—Before the greatest crowd that ever witnessed a baseball game at the post athletic park the 25th Infantry nine made another advance on its steady march to pennant honors by trimming the 32nd Infantry by a score of 3 to 1 after a fiercely contested game. If the entrances to the post baseball park had been provided with turnstiles it is estimated that 2400 admissions would have been clicked off. In addition to the large number of paid admissions, about 500 recruits watched the pastime from a corner in deep left field and, no doubt, many a recruit will tonight in his dreams have visions of capering on the post diamond to the plaudits of hundreds of fans.

The game itself was one of the best served on the bill of the Oahu-Service League at the post thus far, abounding with spectacular plays and in several instances featuring home runs. Goliath and Smith being the two athletes who had marathons events. Morgan pitched an excellent game for the 25th Infantry, as is evidenced by the fact that he allowed but four safe hits, no two of which occurred in the same inning. He walked none and sent four of the infants back to the bench by the whiff route. Mashaw, while not tapped for a very large number of bingles, seven in all, was the victim of a vicious onslaught by several members of the Wrecking crew, Smith and Goliath being the chief offenders with their homers, while Hawkins slammed out a two sacker. Each of the trio also garnered a single for good measure. Aulston was the other Wrecker to cop a safety. McDonald attempted to make a sensational play of Smith's drive to center, and in attempting to dive for the pill, missed it by feet, and as a consequence the pill, without hindrance, continued its trip out of the park via center field. Goliath's smash was a clean drive to left. Hawkins also sent his double in the same general direction. Smith, Hawkins and Johnson were the defensive stars for the 25th Infantry, accepting numerous chances without slip.

Holcomb was batting star for the 32nd Infantry, collecting two swats, one of which was good for three outs. Buckland also slammed the horseshoe to center for three sacks. Holcomb, Ralls, Chief and Cassell were the fielding stars for the infants.

The Wreckers scored their first run in the second inning on Goliath's homer to left field. In the third inning the 25th Infantry annexed two more; Aulston, the first man up, whiffed; Morgan

Permanent Swimming Course and Site For Boat-Clubs Outlined By Rowing Association

Honolulu has long asked for a permanent swimming course which would give a further boost to aquatic sports in this city. With the announcement that the boat clubs will be forced to lose their present sites, the Hawaiian Rowing Association outlined a plan which would not only give Honolulu a 100-yard permanent swimming course, but would provide a site for the four boat clubs, which will be homeless within a short time. This drawing shows the present plan as outlined, giving ample room for a 100-yard course, and space for four clubhouses. This is one of the proposed plans which was given the indorsement of the association at the campaign organization meeting last week.

Honolulu will have a 100-yard permanent swimming course, together with a permanent site for the boat clubs if the present plans as outlined by the members of the Hawaiian Rowing Association materialize. At a meeting last week at the Star-Bulletin office members of the association went on record as in favor of a definite plan which was outlined.

With the proposals for the new wharves the Myrtles, Healanis and Kunalas were asked to move their clubhouses. They had no place to go and for a time the situation looked dark for the future of rowing in Honolulu. Rowing has been an institution here, and the fact that Regatta Day is a legal holiday clearly shows the interest taken in rowing events in Hawaii, and the official recognition given the rowing sport.

The members of the Hawaiian Rowing Association had to do one of two things: abandon the rowing game or secure a new site for their clubhouses. Campbell Crozier, one of the committee, outlined a plan which would give the clubs a site at the proposed lumber wharf near the present site of the Myrtle Boat Club.

Will Require Dredging
Crozier's plan was to dredge a slip 300 feet long, 100 feet wide and 10 feet deep near the proposed lumber wharf.

Kelly Comes Out On Top In Real Pitcher's Duel at Moiliili Field

Ruger Giants Win From All-Stars By a Score of 2 to 1—Kelly and Williams Stage Hurling Battle for Nine Innings—All-Stars Show Wonderful Improvement in Fielding Yesterday—Rugierites Make Good Impression in Their First Victory

Some ardent fan said Johnny Williams pitched like Kelly did. This fan is covering plenty of territory, as performance such as that of yesterday by the green necktie personage aren't scattered around in gobs, oodles or bunches.

To get to the bottom of it all, the Forerugier Giants, with heads up, defeated the All-Stars in a regular baseball game yesterday afternoon at Moiliili Field by a score of 2 to 1. And it was a real ball game, as hundreds of fans will testify. Out of it all the Kelly personage from the River Shannon stuck out like an injured phalange if there is such a thing.

Kelly Did It
During the afternoon the All-Stars amassed, garnered and secured but five singles, and seven of the batters were sent back to the bench after performing their wig wag exercise. Had it not been for two errors, Kelly would have had a shutout to his credit, as Lang Akana was the only runner to cross the plate for the Stars.

Kelly wasn't the only one who was performing in grand fashion, as during the first three innings Johnny Williams, the ex-Detroit hurler, pitched like Kelly did. Cummings connected with one of the floaters for a homer over the left field barrier in the fifth inning, and McClain also picked out a good one for a triple in the seventh, but that was about all the heavy hitting that the Rugierites did during the afternoon, with the exception of Kelly's long hit to left center.

Williams Shows Something
Williams had his fast ball working in great shape, and although the honors for the day must go to Kelly, Johnny turned in a good game, and would have won under most conditions. And the All-Stars, who only a few days ago opened the gates and scattered errors to the winds got together and put up a nice performance, only one error being charged against them.

McClain was the only outfielder who had a chance in the game yesterday, and two of these putouts were off Williams, who hit the ball hard to the left garden. Ruger played good ball from the fielding standpoint, and wild throws were responsible for most of the errors chalked up against the Giants.

Chilly Plays
Henry Chillingworth broke into the game for the first time since his injury, but the Giants refused to hit them down his way, and he went without a chance all day. Yesterday was a great day for the titan haired boys as both Johnson of the Giants and McGavin of the Stars connected for three hits. Dunlap and Judd got the other two for the Stars.

Only three men batted in an inning for the first three cantos, and Williams was breezing along in great shape, sending three men back to the bench in one inning, after an effort to solve his shoos. Judd hit safe in the third inning, and although McGavin singled in the fourth the Stars failed to score.

Johnson opened the fourth for Ruger with a single and Perry sent him down to second. Then Bailey bunted and beat it out, and while they were making an effort to catch Bailey off the base Johnson came home. In the next inning Williams shot over a floater and Cummings sent it far over the fence for a homer.

Lang Scores
Akana brought the only run across the plate for the All-Stars in the sixth when he walked, went to second on a wild throw and came home on a hit. McClain tripled in the seventh, and Kelly tripled in the eighth, but Williams pitched well in the pinches, and Ruger failed to score. McGavin made a start when he singled in the ninth, and Williams came up with two men out and hit a roller to Womack who caught the hurler at first, and Ruger broke through with the first victory of their toes Sunday, and a large number of fans who were pulling for the Giants to win a game were very well satisfied with the performance. There is joy in Fort Ruger, and the Rugierites are going to send this same Kelly to the Wreckers next Sunday.

McKinley Wins
Kings aren't having the best of it these days, and the crowned heads Electric, handling all his chances without a bob, O'Sullivan caught a pretty game and held the runners close to the sacks.

Von Hamm-Young Wins
In the second game of the day the Von Hamm-Young Company ball team started out on the high gear and handed a neat "30" to the Advertiser contingent. The game ended up in the sixth inning with a score of 20 to 5 in favor of the automobile concern. Lee Tuck and Ginton gathered for his apiece during the day, while Chong and Kim came through with three bingles off McGowan brothers.

Wild Affonso and Crane worked hard to stem the tide, but weird work on the part of the Advertiser crew was responsible for much of the run making, although the von Hamm-Young crew gathered 19 hits. If the rest of the Advertiser players had injected as much pep into the game as Crane and Affonso the score might have been closer. The von Hamm-Young team showed up well, and this aggregation ought to put up some good games in the future.

SAINTS HAMMER BALL HARD FOR 21 REAL HITS

Down Potuguese Team By a Score of 15 to 2; Chinese Win From Japanese

MONOLULU JUNIORS

St. Louis	6	1	.857
Chinese	4	3	.571

It is mighty fortunate that the Portuguese and Japanese baseball fans of Honolulu have the Braves and Asahis to cheer for, or sorrow would be present in many households of the city. Yesterday afternoon at Athletic Park the St. Louis team downed the Portuguese aggregation by a score of 15 to 2, and it might have been twice as much had not the Saints tired in the late innings.

The recent performance of the All-Stars, which has been forgiven since their showing of yesterday, was bad enough, but there is hardly an alibi for a 15 to 2 game. The Saints hammered Placida and Barboza for 21 hits, which included everything from scratch hits to home runs, and even Kaui, who is known as a weak sister at the bat hampered out three hits, while Bill Inman carried off the honors of the day with five clean drives out of five times up. Inman had his batting clothes on yesterday and during the day made a homer, two triples and two singles.

St. Louis played good ball, while the Portuguese are trying to make alibis over their showing. Simao was the star for the Portuguese, and was the only player on the team who made a showing in the melee. The Saints made but two errors, and Billy Williams pitched good ball throughout.

The Japanese team as usual lost out to the Chinese, although the second game was a much better contest. Despite the fact that T. Moriyama, a senior player, was sent on the mound the Japanese could not win, and

KEEP COLLEGE SPORTS GOING, SAYS WILSON

WASHINGTON, D. C.—President Wilson, in a letter, advocates the continuance of sports in colleges rather than the substitution of military training.

He says: "I would be sincerely sorry to see the men and boys in our colleges and schools give up their athletic sports, and I hope most sincerely that the normal course of college sports will be continued so far as possible, not to afford a diversion to the American people in the days to come when he shall not have our share of mental depression, but as a real contribution to the national defense, for our young men must be made physically fit."

BOWLING CONGRESS ON THIS AFTERNOON AT "Y"

The first annual Hawaiian Bowling Congress opens on the Y. M. C. A. alley today. Five men teams will be the first to roll. The contest is not confined to organized teams but any five men may get together and enter as long as the same five do not roll more than one match together.

Play continues in the five-men event for a 15 to 2 game. The Saints hammered Placida and Barboza for 21 hits, which included everything from scratch hits to home runs, and even Kaui, who is known as a weak sister at the bat hampered out three hits, while Bill Inman carried off the honors of the day with five clean drives out of five times up. WOMEN BREAK TRACK MARKS

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—Two women's athletic records were broken here today by Temple University students at their annual senior-freshman field and track meet.

In winning the 80-yard dash in 10.45 seconds, Miss Ethel Dreyer of the senior class clipped one-fifth of a second from the former American record held by Miss L. Schwab of Seattle, Wash. The other new record was established by Miss Bessie Cramer of the freshman class, who had a mark of 20 feet 11 inches in the standing hop, step and jump. The former record, 19 feet 10 inches, was held by Miss S. A. Clark, National Park Seminary, Washington, D. C. Miss Dreyer also broke the record in this event, clearing 20 feet 7 inches.

ST. LOUIS DOWNS BRAVES IN LONG GAME SATURDAY

Those fans who were fortunate enough to journey out to Moiliili field on Saturday afternoon did not have the slightest thought of demanding their money back after the second game was over, as the Pacific League staged two bangup games, both ending with a score of 4 to 3.

Perhaps the calcium ought to be placed on the second affair, it being a battle between the Braves and St. Louis, always interesting to the real fans of Honolulu. The game ended in the twelfth inning with the Saints on top and Brother Elmer and Billy Miles were both present when the run crossed the plate.

Twelve Innings, Too
Throughout 12 innings these two teams battled back and forth and after the sixth inning neither side could chase a run across the rubber. St. Louis scored first in the first canto on a walk, an error and a hit by Lai Sin. They found Nelson, the blonde pitcher of the Braves, for three hits in the next inning, only three was a double, but only three men batted, as fast work caught the Saints off the bases.

Again in the third inning, the Saints scored on an error and hits by Hancock and Chun Chew. That was all of the scoring for eight innings, and Nelson was pitching good ball throughout. Cooper started in the box for St. Louis, and the Braves could not score until the fifth, when a walk and hits by Anahu and Ornelas gave the Braves a brace of tallies.

Braves Even It Up
Stewart went into the box in the last of the fifth, and in the sixth walked two men, and hits by Nelson and Mara gave the Braves another run, which tied it up. From that time on until the last inning, the game was featured by great plays. Ornelas saved a score in the eleventh with a great catch, and You Bun Hie

Hawaiian Electric held their place in the sun yesterday at Moiliili when they downed the Reach team by a score of 10 to 5. Hoswa was on the mound for the Electric and Hollinger and F. Joseph worked for the Reach team. Errors behind the Reach pitchers were responsible for much of the run making.

Bushnell, Barboza, Perry, O'Sullivan, Victor and Colburn were the leading hitters of the day. Victor played a nice game at second for the Hawaiian
